

Ay Cg Kavan

preliminary test (part 2)

Write one word only in each space.

A conversation in Oxford:

- A: Hello, Barbara. How are you this morning?
- B: Not bad, thanks. How about you?
- A: Fine. I'm always happy on Fridays.
- B: So do I, usually. But I haven't got anything to do this weekend.
- A: What about going to London? There are some good exhibitions on.
- B: I went to London last weekend. I think I'd better go out into the country.
- Did you heard the weather forecast?
- A: Last night they said on the it was going to be wet on Saturday but fine on Sunday.
- B: Can you suggest anywhere nice for me to go?
- A: What about the Cotswolds? They're nice and close.
- B: How would I get there?
- A: You could take a train on the Worcester line. Then got out at somewhere like Charlbury and walk back along the Oxfordshire Way footpath to one of the other little stations.
- B: Do you know how often these ^{these those} trains go?
- A: I'm a informed not. You'll have to ring British Rail. Or you could ask Amanda. She lives out a long ^{some} ~~the~~ way.
- B: That's a good idea. Thanks for your help.

I did this test without help.

Dear Jackie

First of all thanks for your answer. I'd love to give you informations about my self. It's not a problem that you asked me. I think my English isn't very well at all, but I'd like to develop my language skills. The best thing I can do on English is reading or speaking, I guess. So far I haven't special problems with my English. I just learnt English from school and this about three years. I have never been to an English-speaking country, because of that I'm looking forward to going to Oxford. As I live in Switzerland, I couldn't practise speaking English in my country. Like I said before I can't wait to see Oxford, I heard so much about Oxford and London, but I have never seen them, so this is one point why I ^{have} chosen Oxford, but the other one is because I'm now in an immersion class and most of my classmates can already speak very well English and I want to be as good as they.

Hope my answers could help you.

Kind regards,
Ayça Karas
