

preliminary test (part 2)

Write one word only in each space.

A conversation in Oxford:

- A: Hello, Barbara. How are you this morning?
- B: Not bad, thanks. How about you?
- A: Fine. I'm always happy on Fridays.
- B: So like I, usually. But I haven't got anything to do this weekend.
- A: What about going to London? There are some good exhibitions on.
- B: I went to London last weekend. I think I'd rather go out into the country.
- Have you heard the weather forecast?
- A: Last night they said it was going to be wet on Saturday but fine on Sunday.
- B: Can you suggest something nice for me to go?
- A: What is about the Cotswolds? They're nice and close.
- B: How would I get there?
- A: You could take a train on the Worcester line. Then go out at somewhere like Charlbury and walk back along the Oxfordshire Way footpath to one of the other little stations.
- B: Do you know how often the trains go?
- A: I'm actually sure not. You'll could go to ring British Rail. Or you could ask Amanda. She lives out the way.
- B: That's a good idea. Thanks for your help.

I did this test without help.

Dear Jackie!

Actually, I think that my English isn't so bad, but there's a lot of space left to improve it!

I prefer speaking in English, but only with people who aren't native speakers. Otherwise I'm a bit shy and scared of making embarrassing mistakes.

So my aim is to be more sure and more self-confident when speaking!

I'm learning English for about 6 years, but only at school!

I just went one time to the United States, but totally fell in love with that awesome place! That's why I want to study there!

Furthermore, I just like the sound of English and want to speak it as well as my mother language: German.

Now, go to Oxford and study English is the first step I'm taking, to make that wishes come true!

Thank you for reading my letter :)

Yours sincerely
