A conversation in Oxford:

A: Hello, Barbara. How are you this morning?B: Not bad, thanks. How about you?A: Fine. I'm always happy on Fridays.B: So do I, usually. But I haven't got anything to do this weekend.A: What about going to London? There are some good exhibitions on.B: I went to London last weekend. I think I'd ~~like to~~ prefer go out into the country.
Have you heard the weather forecast?A: Last night they said it was going to be wet on Saturday but fine on Sunday.B: Can you suggest some cities nice for me to go?A: What about the Cotswolds? They're nice and close.B: How would I get there?A: You could take a train on the Worcester line. Then go out at somewhere like Charlbury and walk back along the Oxfordshire Way footpath along one of the other little stations.B: Do you know how often a trains go?A: I'm afraid ^{sure} not. You'll have to ring British Rail. Or you could ask Amanda. She lives out that way.

B: That's a good idea. Thanks for your help.

I did this test without help.

Dear Jackie,

My name is Regina. I think my English is ~~not~~ good. I know a lot of vocabulary, but sometimes I have got problems with the tenses.

I am best at reading, because I understand almost everything.

I would like to speak English more fluently.

The most of my English, I have learnt at school. I have already spent my holidays in the United States, but I didn't have the opportunity to practise it. Only at school, I am able to practise speaking English.

In my school you can choose a bilingue program. That means some subjects are taught on English. The students that have chosen this program have the opportunity to go with the school to Oxford. It's a great opportunity to perfect my English.

I'm looking forward to going to Oxford.

Kind ~~of~~ regards

Regina Arocha
