

preliminary test (part 2)

Write one word only in each space.

A conversation in Oxford:

- A: Hello, Barbara. How are you this morning?
- B: Not bad, thanks. How about you?
- A: Fine. I'm always happy on Fridays.
- B: So am I, usually. But I haven't got anything to do this weekend.
- A: What about going to London? There are some good exhibitions on.
- B: I went to London last weekend. I think I'd better go out into the country.
Have you heard the weather forecast?
- A: Last night they said it was going to be wet on Saturday but fine on Sunday.
- B: Can you suggest something nice for me to go?
- A: What about the Cotswolds? They're nice and close.
- B: How would I get there?
- A: You could take a train on the Worcester line. Then go out at somewhere like Charlbury and walk back along the Oxfordshire Way footpath across one of the other little stations.
- B: Do you know how often do trains go?
- A: I'm sure not. You'll have to ring British Rail. Or you could ask Amanda. She lives out by the way.
- B: That's a good idea. Thanks for your help.

I did this test without help.

Dear Jackie.

I lived in South-Korea for 12 years. In South-Korea, people learn English as 2nd language. So I've been learning English since I was young. Well the problem is, that in our country, we learn a lot of vocabulary, grammar and we also write a lot, but we don't do much of conversation. So a lot of people ~~in~~ ⁱⁿ our country can't even express a simple sentence. I was very lucky that my parents recognized this early and gave me an extra lesson for improving conversation.

I was in this summer vacations in Oxford. This was my first time to go in English spoken country. The course was great, especially the social activities were fabulous. I really didn't think about what I ~~had~~ could do after the course. Everything was well organized. I really appreciate to go to Oxford one more time!
